

Next Generation Now
Child Development & Family Support Center
Invites you to join
Active Parenting Now
Parenting Classes

- Active Parenting is a series of six parenting classes
- The next session will start Thursday, July 13th from 4-6:30pm. Call Diane or Jenni at NGN for more details.
- Classes are informal and fun! Parents learn from each other, receive lots of free material, and discuss ways to handle everything from temper tantrums to play.
- The Racine-Kenosha Nutrition Education Project will also provide training on healthy eating and household budgeting.
- A special piece on home safety and child development will be presented by the NGN RN.

Childcare and a light dinner will be provided so you can relax and enjoy the class. Parents that attend ALL six sessions will be entered in a drawing for a gift card from a local store.

For information or to register please call Diane or Jenni at 262-635-1920.
